S. W. N. S.

Dear Student,

It is with a feeling of great pleasure that my System of Personal Influence and Healing is herewith sent to you and I think it advisable to accompany it with these few words of counsel, born of many years' experience in training thousands of students in the application of Suggestion and Practical Psychology to the everyday affairs of Life.

It cannot be gainsaid that Mind Force is omnipotent in the overcoming of all difficulties and this System to which I have devoted the best that is in me comes to you as a message of great hope for the solution of your problems and your difficulties through the use of your inherent inner faculties. Never was a moment more propitious than NOW : never was a day more pregnant with possibilities than TO-DAY, if you but will it so.

It is because of my belief in the enormous creative and reconstructive powers latent in all of us that I stress the worth of studying the Science of Suggestion and Applied Psychology, on which this System is based. You will perhaps wonder at my persistence on the necessity of enlisting your will — the Captain of your Mind Forces — as your truest ally in your fight for better things. It must always be your endeavour to discipline that restless crowd of impulses, often conflicting and contestant, which stand in the way of the realisation of your ambitions, and to enthrone your Will — your inner Self — as master.

Be assured that you have concealed within yourself, an ideal Self, and it must be your work to become actually what you are potentially. Failure does not take place in the outer world of circumstance, but in the inner world of Self. Self is the real centre of your War. Nothing can ever happen by chance; every action or state — Success or Failure, Happiness or Unhappiness — must follow a Thought-product of the mind. As the glorious Bard of Avon sang : " There's nothing good or bad, but thinking makes it so. "

Faith and determination are absolutely necessary for success in any undertaking, be it ever so insignificant. Make up your mind, at the very outset, that in studying this System, you will allow nothing to interfere with your success. Particular attention should be given to the instructions contained in the System, as a correct understanding of how to study and to practise is very requisite. Too much importance cannot be attached to the little things, and to what, at first, may appear unnecessary exercises, each one of which has been very carefully thought out as a means to an end.

Take up your work with the earnest Will to succeed. Do not expect remarkable results at the very beginning. Cultivate an implicit faith in the System and in its proved possibilities and resolve to throw of the tentacles of Impatience. Be persistent. Be pertinacious. Be thorough. Keep steadily before you the great advantages which are enjoyed by the person who has a thorough knowledge of the mental sciences. If you do so — if you adhere strictly to the directions contained in the System — I feel every confidence that I shall receive from you a very favourable report as to your progress.

S. W. N. S.

Should you find any exercise which may not be quite clear to you, please do not hesitate to write to me immediately, because only by so doing, do you give me the opportunity of holding out a helping hand to you. It is always my pleasure to answer enquiries from my students and to lend them every possible assistance to ensure success.

It is not my intention to utilise this letter as a vehicle for further instruction or advice, for I feel that this System is, within itself, complete, but I do wish to emphasise that my work on your behalf is, in no wise, terminated by the despatch of the Complete System, though it places you in possession of a practical method, through which thousands of other students are accomplishing marvellous things.

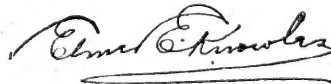

No one recognises better than I do the fact that many of my students have certain personal requirements with which it is impossible to deal in a System intended for general circulation and it is for this reason that I have devised my Supplementary Special Lessons, the aim of which is to develop the greatest possible mental efficiency, to eradicate undesirable traits of character and generally to enable the Mind Forces to reach full fruition.

The supplementary Special Lessons in Memory Training, Concentration, Will-Power, Self-Control, Self-Analysis, Force of Character, etc., etc., some of which should be found applicable to your purely personal problems, will be sent to you without any additional charge of any kind, as soon as you have advised me that you have fruitfully assimilated at least some of the teachings laid down in my Complete System. Likewise the Lessons on the Use of Suggestion in the Correction of Children's Faults and Failings will be supplied free on request to parents and guardians who are already subscribers to the System.

When making application for these Supplementary Special Lessons, please indicate the branch in which you are most interested. I do not insist on your having absorbed all of the matter contained in my Complete System before proceeding with the Supplementary Lessons. As soon as you can honestly make me a satisfactory report of your progress, as soon as you think that you have been sufficiently successful — even with some of the minor experiments only — please so advise me, and I will send you such further helpful Lessons as your special circumstances may demand.

In the confident expectation of receiving a gratifying report from you at no very distant date, I remain, with kind regards.

Very sincerely yours,

S. W. N. S.

Dear Student,

Particular notice has been taken of your answers to the questions as set out on the order form which accompanied your enrolment for the Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing. For the sake of lucidity I will deal with them as enumerated.

With regard to Memory and Concentration (realising the great need of many of my students for special instruction concerning the development of these most important faculties) I devised a system of Supplementary Lessons. As you will see from details on the accompanying form No. 131. Supplementary Lesson No. 3. deals exclusively with the Development of Memory and Power of Concentration.

This Supplementary Lesson will be sent you free of charge, and without any obligation on your part, just as soon as you can make me a satisfactory report of your progress. You will appreciate from this that I do not wish to "CROWD" you. I want you to feel that I am here to be of real help to you.

Robust health and your desires CAN each be achieved. I will go further and say they WILL be achieved. For I realise that you are a person who, when set on reaching a definite goal will allow nothing to interfere with your ambitions. All you need is a guiding hand to show you the road. That guiding hand (as evidenced by the results obtained by thousands of my students) is the lessons contained in the Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing. Study it well, and I can confidently predict that no reasonable desire of yours need remain unfulfilled, nor the accomplishment of any rational thing remain long in abeyance.

I thought fit to treat upon such matters as the Control of Temper, Conversational Powers and Self-Confidence also in a Supplementary Lesson, details of which you will find on the accompanying form No. 131, lesson No. 4. This Supplementary Lesson in its entirety deals exhaustively with Character-Building, Self-Analysis and the development of the Will-Power, this lesson will be forwarded upon request as enumerated above.

The problems of favourably impressing people on short acquaintance, and of being able to gain your wishes in spite of opposition are of the utmost importance to your ultimate success in life and I commend to your earnest attention PARTICULAR study of Branch 2, of the Complete System, paying special attention to my instructions and remarks anent Personal Magnetism and Personal Influence.

In the confident expectation of receiving a gratifying report from you at no very distant date, I remain, with kind regards.

Very sincerely yours.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS - THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PSYCHOLOGY.

My thousands of correspondents will be interested to learn that they will find just that necessary advanced study and completion to their psychological studies in the ENCYCLOPEDIA of PSYCHOLOGY. This handsome volume, containing upwards of 400 pages, has been contributed to by the WORLD'S LEADING PSYCHOLOGISTS who offer, in the plainest language, a comprehensive guide to action and conduct. It is a distinct challenge to some highly technical books which say no more and say it in bewildering language.

We cannot all hope to be supreme in the World but each one of us stands as good a chance as his neighbour to be a little above the ordinary; which "little" has a sound realisable value. It is in the acquisition of this "little more" that the ENCYCLOPEDIA of PSYCHOLOGY helps the experienced and the tyro alike, thus enhancing the realisable value of the reader. The many splendid photographs of the actual authors of the various articles, give just that "personal touch" which enables the reader to know their physionomical aspect, thus giving greater respect and confidence in the views expressed.

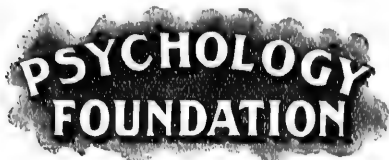

In view of the fact that your name is on the registers of Psychology Foundation, a Special Discount is offered you in respect of the price of the ENCYCLOPEDIA. The usual price for this work is 42/- (post paid), but the special discount of 25% to registered correspondents of Psychology Foundation, makes the price to you of the ENCYCLOPEDIA of PSYCHOLOGY 31/3 only; which sum, I fully believe you will appreciate, is very small when compared with the innumerable benefits consequent upon correct knowledge of psychology.

Dear Student :-

May I be permitted to digress for a moment from the subject of your success and turn to the equally important matter of the preservation and advancement of the affairs of Psychology Foundation.

I am sure you fully appreciate the special terms extended whereby you were enabled to procure the Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing at a very nominal cost; and you will recall that in my first letter I explained that such an offer was made possible by reason of the prospect of interesting a few of your acquaintances in the system at the full fee of tuition.

In order to facilitate the execution of your part of the agreed programme, I am enclosing herewith a few "Announcements" which please hand or post to persons of your acquaintance whom you believe to be interested in psychological matters.

This is the only effort I ask you to make in return for the special price allowed, and I feel assured that the distribution of The "Announcements" will receive your prompt and conscientious attention.

Please do not send us the names and addresses of people you may think are interested, as we only send the free book to people who themselves write to us direct. If you send or hand these announcements to those you think would be interested then they can write direct to us.

I have specially marked the coupons of the enclosed "Announcements" in order that I may know that the senders are acquaintances of yours and thereby be able to trace and give due appreciation to the results of your efforts.

Be assured that at no time will your name be mentioned when communications are sent to those of your acquaintances who reply to the "Announcements".

Likewise, I would appreciate having you treat the matter of the price quoted to you for the System as purely confidential.

With continued good wishes for your success and assuring you of my prompt and best attention to any communication which you may direct to me.

Sincerely Yours,

Steno F.R.N./2.

You Would Benefit

a World - Renowned Psycho-Therapist!

You Would Benefit by the Treatment of a World-Renowned Psycho - Therapist !

In considering the periodic Reports issued by the Research Department of our Filing Section, we have been struck by the frequency with which Enrolled Students, Would-be Students, and Correspondents allude to some Malady or Disease, or some Mental or Physical Difficulty which they « feel sure would readily and rapidly yield to the scientific personal treatment of an experienced Psychic Healer.

Apart from other considerations, we welcome these confidences because they prove that the writers are alive to the very real sympathy which we feel in the personal welfare of all with whom we come in contact, and also our anxiety to extend every possible help to all who are eager to prove in their own persons the inestimable value of Applied Psychology.

We trust that those who have taken, or contemplate taking, the first step in a system of Self-Help which assuredly is without parallel in the World to-day, will continue to avail themselves of the aid which, at all times, we are only too willing to accord, so that seeming difficulties and barriers to progress may be swept away.

Now, frankly, the desire to place oneself in the hands of an expert Healer indicates : (1) That the enquirer is lacking in Self-Confidence, and (2) Has not yet grasped the fundamental truth that all normal persons possess (in a latent or dormant state) all the power necessary to obtain or regain Health and Happiness.

Such Self-Doubting, however, must not be taken as evidence of lack of progress on the part of those who are already Students ; nor as an indication that the enquirer — under proper tuition — cannot obtain the control over Mental and Bodily Ailments which comes with the acquire of Mind Mastery. Generally speaking such uncertainty is merely a passing phase, which instantly disappears with a fuller understanding of the principles underlying Applied Psychology.

Nevertheless, for those who feel that their further efforts would be strengthened, and their confidence in Psycho-therapeutics built-up so that they can go forward confidently to the attainment of full Success, and the actual realization of their cherished aims and objects, we have made an arrangement with Professor Alexander Erskine, the most distinguished and successful Psychic Healer in Great Britain to give Students of Psychology Foundation (or others bearing our introduction) personal treatment at a substantially reduced fee.

From the facts and particulars which we have before us it is evident that there are many who are experiencing considerable anxiety in regard to their health, condition, or circumstances, and who are convinced that their trouble would be quickly overcome could they obtain the services of a Psychic Healer of acknowledged standing and distinction. We hope, therefore, that all who view the matter from this standpoint will promptly avail themselves of this extremely advantageous opportunity, and so obtain the personal treatment and benefits which they so earnestly desire.

Speaking from experience we are confident that once they have passed this critical juncture they will be able to carry on and complete the development of their own mental forces without further trouble, and learn the secret of that Mental Mastery which will enable them to take control of all that pertains to the full realization of Life's potentialities.

All they have to do is to fill up the appended Form ; and we will send, per return, a personal introduction to Prof. Alex. Erskine, which will procure for them Consultation and Treatment at special terms.

As practically all Students of Applied Psychology are aware, Prof. Erskine is a Healer possessing phenomenal powers, which the Public Press have described as «miraculous». We have, however, selected him to co-operate with us because, in addition to these extraordinary gifts, he possesses in a remarkable degree sympathetic insight into all Mental or Physical Conditions, and the rare faculty of discovering the hidden sources of all sorts of troubles.

He is, above all, a kindly, considerate, «large-hearted» man, of unerring judgment; and his appreciation of the innumerable difficulties by which his patients are beset borders on the incredible. No one — whatever may be the precise nature of his trouble — need have any fears or qualms in regard to either consultation or treatment, because Prof. Erskine's experience covers all phases of human maladies, and embraces cures extending from «shell shock» to blindness, and from «nerves» to chronic neurasthenia.

It is manifestly impossible in the space at our disposal to quote from even a small percentage of the laudatory Press notices which have appeared, or to give details of the cases in which Prof. Erskine has succeeded when the Medical Profession have frankly confessed themselves baffled and powerless. The following excerpts, however, taken from dated reports in prominent newspapers indicate that Prof. Erskine's reputation as a Psychic Healer is second to none.

Daily Express. July 7th 1913.

«Gertrude Yates was born blind, and educated at an L. C. C. School for the blind. A few days ago one of the L. C. C. inspectors took the little girl to Prof. A. Erskine, who is a professor of Psycho-suggestion. He effected so complete a cure that the child was able minutely to describe every object shown her by an Express representative at a distance of a dozen yards.»

(Seen again in the early part of 1926, Miss Yates' sight was described as perfect.)

The Clarion. Aug. 22nd 1924. (Leading Article by Robert Blatchford.)

... «The treatment of human ailments, moral and physical, by suggestion and hypnosis, though not new, has been lifted out of the tangle and obscurity of charlatanism and superstition, and placed firmly on a scientific basis. Hypnotism is no black magic it is a natural process. Spiritual phenomena are not fraud or illusion, they are scientific facts...»

Men like Prof. Erskine throw open to us new and splendid worlds... I am wondering what I shall learn next and what new vistas will open up before me in the boundless mysteries of Nature.»

The Clarion. Jan. 4th 1925. (Article by Robert Blatchford.)

«I have in my desk a letter from a young woman who was suffering from spinal meningitis and had been given up as hopeless by the doctors. She had one sitting with Prof. Erskine and she walked home. She is now well and strong, and writes to thank him for his marvellous help... What is the use of such words as incredible or impossible? Prof. Erskine is not a magician; he is an hypnotic doctor.»

Pall Mall Gazette. 26th June 1923.

«Prof. Alex. Erskine, the famous expert in Neurology and Psycho-therapy, has overcome every form of nervous disorder, obstinate cases that have refused to respond to any other method of treatment, such as shell-shock, melancholia, mental fears, insomnia, eyesight troubles, deafness, drug and drink habits, stammering, nervous dyspepsia, functional derangements, certain forms of paralysis, and many other evils. None has been more impressed by his success than the medical men who witnessed the amazing results of his methods in their patients.»

«... He daily performs modern miracles of healing by the potent power of Suggestion. Some of these seem almost incredible, but, fortunately, they are substantiated in every detail, and there is not the shadow of a doubt that in certain cases he has caused the blind to see, the deaf to hear, and the paralysed to regain command of their movements.»

Westminster Gazette. 18th July 1923. (Quoted from report.)

«Faith was the acceptance of suggestion... healing power was not in reality in the person who inspired the suggestion but in the patient's own mind.»

Birmingham Gazette & Express. 18th July 1923.

« Mr Alexander Erskine lecturing on Mental Healing by the aid of Neuro-fogy, at Caxton Hall, Westminster, last night said that the twentieth century had furnished scientific evidence of the entity of the Mind... only foolish and ignorant people condemned the great therapeutic agent of suggestion. »

Daily Express. 18th July 1923. (Reporting Prof. Erskine's lecture at Caxton Hall.)

« The power to heal is increased because the patient's consciousness is free from all doubts and fears. »

Star. 23rd July 1923.

« Mr Erskine is simply a master of the Mind. He has made a profound study of the nervous system and of neurology. When the Star reporter called... he found two well-known London doctors were undergoing treatment for nervous breakdown. »

» The sister-in-charge is an example of his work. She suffered from an internal illness and two operations proved unsuccessful. By suggestion Mr Erskine restored the nervous activity of the stomach, and effected so complete a cure that her doctors could hardly believe their eyes. To-day many doctors send him patients. »

» Paralysis, delusional insanity, rheumatism, functional gastritis, drug habits, St. Vitus' dance, and many other serious diseases he is curing daily. »

Star. 11th April 1916.

« Only last week he (Mr Erskine) was called to the Battersea General Hospital in the case of a young woman who, after a serious operation, had almost continual attacks of sickness. Hypnotism was tried, and was immediately successful. »

» For eight months, Driver Martin, R.F.A. was apparently blind (as the result of shell-shock). Under hypnotic suggestion (by Prof. Erskine) the contraction of the muscles instantly relaxed. Martin, however, was still blind, and another powerful suggestion was given, and this resulted in the return of his sight. «

Daily Express. 11th Jan. 1918.

« ... A man who had been blinded since the battle of the Marne was cured... and has been able to see ever since. » International Psychic Gazette. April 1916.

« Signorina Cesira Cattaneo... suffered from all the deep misery and despair of being totally blind, and now she sees. » (A remarkable cure effected by Prof. Erskine.)

Kelso Chronicle. January 19th 1917.

« Mr Alex. Erskine has already several wonderful cures to his credit. He has enabled several soldiers rendered blind through shell-shock, to see again, and even other injuries sustained in the exigencies of battle have been remedied by him. »

These few extracts put Prof. Erskine's extraordinary gifts far beyond debate; but we should like every student to feel that in him they have a friend — that is to say, one who understands, and is willing to help. Not only will they find him vividly interested in all that they do or feel; but they will realize instantly that he possesses to a remarkable degree that deep sympathy without which Success in the field of Applied Psychology is a sheer impossibility.

If, therefore, you feel that, at the present juncture, such aid will restore courage and self-confidence, and enable you to go forward with renewed hopes to the assured achievement of your most ardent wish, we strongly urge you — in your own interest, and, maybe, the interest of others — to take the simple step indicated above.

Finally, we trust that at all times you will keep in touch with Psychology Foundation, and let us know exactly what you have done, and what progress you have made.

Write us freely, frankly, and frequently. Your smallest trouble is our concern; your greatest success our joy.

Yours p. p. Psychology Foundation, S. A.,

« A veritable mine of information by eminent living world-authorities. » — The Word.

« The work should prove an invaluable aid to the general public. » — New York Herald.

A few of the many commendatory letters from people who have read this remarkable work.

« I have many books on philosophy and psychology but never have I possessed such an inspiring, useful and practical book as the Encyclopedia of Psychology. »

« The Encyclopedia of Psychology is a companion for the lonely, a reliable guide, a trustworthy partner, a teacher that uplifts and inspires one to greater and grander achievements; all in all it is an indispensable book. »

« Herewith check for $ 40, please send four more copies of the Encyclopedia of Psychology. I want each of my children to have one. »

« I find the Encyclopedia of Psychology a very useful book in helping me to understand my employees and in getting better results from their efforts. »

« Since the purchase of that marvellous book, our home life, our business, our outlook on the future, ALL has changed and we bless the day the Encyclopedia of Psychology came to us. »

« In business, in society, in sports, in all of our activities the Encyclopedia of Psychology figures as the guide to greater achievements, and the spur to greater efforts. »

« It will make the plainest citizen a bigger and better man. It provides a natural panacea for countless human frailties. It is replete with vital lessons upon the most important of all branches of education — human nature. Lastly, it is shorn of all technical phraseology and can be read and understood by all and sundry. Such is my opinion of the Encyclopedia of Psychology. »

A new Study of

by

BRIGGS DAVENPORT

Journalist - Author - Critic

A novel that deals with human existence in its most fascinating phases.

Its attraction is intense, without being merely sensational; its development is artistic without being audaciously artificial; its dissection is pure, but not pedantic; it is entertaining without base appeal or cheap frivolity; the characters that it delineates are such as constitute the thinking, hating, loving, wilful world.

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS OF BRIGGS DAVENPORT'S NOVEL "THE NOBLER LOVE"

« It is singular that Anglo-Saxon Puritanism in nearly all its dramatic and poetic literature, has ignored this needful element in marriage, its most trustworthy basis, far more important than any passionate affinity, this cultivation of true comradeship between husband and wife, more essential than aught else. » — The Christian Messenger, March 1929

« The Nobler Love », a romance of American life, is certain to still further enhance the already firmly established reputation of its author, Briggs Davenport. Indeed it is not too much to say that the story will go down to history as a classic, typical of the very finest fictional writing of this present age. » — The Lincolnshire Chronicle, January 19th. 1929.

« If there is about this book the sweet odours blown on the air in an old-fashioned garden, it is a real gratification to breathe them. » — The New York Herald, January 14th. 1929.

« It is a book that aims at doing more than helping the reader to while away an idle hour or two. It is clearly written with a purpose — to make people think. » — The Cambridge Daily News, January 23rd. 1929.

« The Nobler Love » implies something entirely different from the great stream of fiction of the present day. The reader will not be disappointed. » — The Anglo Belgian Times, February 16th. 1929.

« In a sense it is a problem novel, yet its treatment of a conflict between love and duty is sanely presented, and in the end duty triumphs. » — The Aldersgate Magazine, March 1929.

« The Nobler Love » is a story and a picture of American life, yet of universal significance. The psychological element is strong and singularly penetrative. Character traits are delineated with an assured, if subtle touch. Punctuated with three tragedies, the thread of adventure running through it is sufficiently exciting. » — New Haven Register (New Haven, Conn.)

" IMPRISONED SPLENDOUR "

by R. DIMSDALE STOCKER

A book for Thinking People

A book that makes People Think.

Mr. Stocker has the knack of hitting at the heart of human frailties and of making people see themselves as others see them.

« Imprisoned Splendour » deals with everyday occurrences in the lives of people of all grades and is a book that can be unreservedly recommended for practicability.

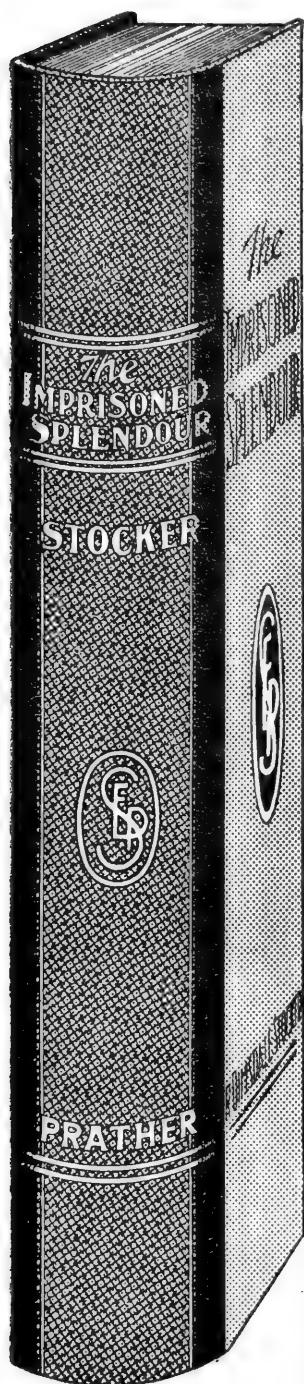

Among the interesting topics discussed are the following :

- « The Myth of Laziness »
- « Life, Leisure and Drudgery »
- « Social Discipline and Relaxation »
- « The Right to be Happy »
- « Our baulked Dispositions »
- « Wishing and its Relation to Dreams »
- « Mirth, Morals and the Unconscious »
- « Dreams and their Significance »
- « The Fear Impulse »
- « Re-Incarnation — A Psychological Interpretation ».

One reviewer has said that « Imprisoned Splendour » sets up a chain of thoughts which, if followed, leads to a bigger, better, healthier, happier life, in which our mistakes of yesterday no longer baulk our ambitions of tomorrow

« Browning's words have furnished Mr. Stocker with a wonderful motif. These very original studies deal with life in all its varied phases. » — London New Thought.

« Excellent reading to put into the hands of all men and women who harass themselves with the thought of their awful responsibilities. » — The Times, London.

« It is a harvest of practical philosophy. It cuts sharply the confused fog of ordinary thinking on many vexing problems of our inner existence. » — Anglo-Belgian Times.

« A book that assesses the nature and the right functioning of the abstract qualities of man. The author presents his ideas with simplicity and charm. » — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

« The author is not only an able thinker but a man who knows how to set out his thoughts in an attractive way. His ideas are clearly and closely reasoned. » — London Light.

« The author and the publisher are to be warmly felicitated on the publication of "The Imprisoned Splendour". It contains information that would secure the maximum of individual and social welfare. » — The Madras Hindu.

The Radio Hypnotic Crystal is an absolute necessity to the beginner in the practice of Suggestion, Hypnotism, Concentration and Telepathy. It marks the difference between SUCCESS and FAILURE in the preliminary as well as in the advanced mental undertakings. The public is warned against the many worthless imitations offered under various fancy names. There is only ONE Radio Hypnotic Crystal

The Radio-Hypnotic Crystal

The Radio-Hypnotic Crystal is an instrument designed to work through the practical application of the recognised laws of Suggestion. Its employment enables a person to focus his or her attention upon the subject in hand, to the exclusion of all extraneous ideas. It aids in concentration and overcomes aberration of mind.

It has proven of great assistance to thousands of students in producing that passiveness and equanimity of temperament so essential in overcoming nervousness.

The Crystal operates to create the proper condition of expectancy not only in the mind of the operator or suggestionist but also in the mind of the subject or patient.

It does something which no other device of similar character has done. It enables those, who have studied other Systems and have failed, to obtain control of their mental forces, and develop their latent powers in a manner which permits of no denial.

No Connection with the Supernatural

Neither the Radio Hypnotic Crystal nor the Knowles System has any connection with Magic, Spiritualism, Devination, or Crystal Gazing. The System (with which is taught the use of the Crystal) is designed to teach by the simplest and surest method the scientific use of Suggestion.

In teaching thousands of students to successfully practise Suggestion, Hypnotism and Telepathy, the Crystal has proven to be of immeasurable benefit in overcoming lack of Self-Confidence and inability to Concentrate.

The Forces which it is sought to bring into operation through the use of the System and Crystal are not super-natural. In the lessons every statement made has definite and restricted reference to the enlightened use of those powers which every reasonable and sane being possesses in varying degree, and which are specifically recognised by scientists and medical men.

The Mechanical Construction of the Radio-Hypnotic Crystal

The Framework is composed of very highly polished aluminium, the double windows being made of mica. The centre pin and ball project above the level of the blue mineral mass which is imprisoned between the double windows. The Handle is fitted with detachable pedestal thus enabling the instrument to be held in the hand or, if required, to be placed in an erect position upon the table.

Miss E. Reynolds.
Bridgnorth, England.

January 24th. 1934.

Dear Miss Reynolds:--

L.F.W./37-E.

Each day I have been hoping to hear from you, and must confess, am disappointed that a woman of your far-sightedness should fail to avail yourself of my most exceptional offer. What is deterring you? Why have you ignored such an excellent opportunity?

Have you quite grasped the urgent necessity, the cardinal importance of developing your most priceless mental faculties and hidden psychic reserves, your charm, attraction and fascination, to their maximum capacity? Life in every sphere is so intense, so ruthless, so relentless nowadays that only the fit survive at all, and only the very fittest can hope to attain happiness and prosperity.

Many prominent women owe their success to a striking, ingratiating, fascinating personality rather than to any outstanding ability. Yet, as you know well enough, the world is literally teeming with deserving, intelligent, well-meaning people who are doomed to failure, or at least terribly handicapped by their unimpressive, nondescript personalities, of which they themselves are totally unaware. They have to content themselves with some tedious, trumpery, hum-drum existence, day in and day out, year in and year out; they never make any appreciable headway because those upon whom their progress depends fail to recognise any promising characteristics in them.

These poor mediocre, every-day individuals are woefully ignorant of the secrets of Personal Magnetism, Personal Influence, Suggestion or Applied Psychology, so that those who can consciously exercise and direct these mighty forces immediately enjoy incalculable advantages in every respect over their fellow men and women. And bear in mind, most jobs in life -especially the big, highly-paid ones- look much more formidable than they really are. Those who have sufficient pluck and self-confidence to reach up for a higher position will usually discover within themselves the necessary capacity to fill it when the time comes!

Although the Foundation's exceptional ten-day offer has now expired, you need more time to reflect over these vital questions, consequently I have obtained permission to extend the previous special offer a further fifteen days after receipt of this letter by you. Surely you will appreciate this opportunity to secure the Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing, (six branches), as well as the Radio-Hypnotic Crystal for only £2. (28 Rupees), when the customary price is no less than eight (112 Rupees).

Has it ever occurred to you what astounding things we can do when we just have to?... when we are literally "up against it"? A friend of mine found himself in the water a good two miles from shore. His boat had sunk and a quarter of a mile was certainly as far as he could swim; he had never even swum that far before. How on earth he kept on and on and on for those two awful, never-ending miles thoroughly mystified him. "I never dreamt I had it in me", he told me afterwards. "My despair gave me powers I little suspected."

Undoubtedly you know of similar instances, maybe you have actually encountered similar experiences. Doesn't this convince you that we all possess subconscious reserves, hidden strength which only dire emergency will call into action? Why not study my System and learn how to control and direct these all-powerful forces, how to make use of them instead of allowing them to rust and decay? Lean back and visualize the possibilities... there are practically no limits to what you might accomplish.

Are you perhaps inclined to doubt your own ability to apply the methods advocated in my System, and turn them to practical account? If so, you may rest assured that it has been specifically designed to enable any ordinary woman to utilise her mental powers and develop her psychic forces so that she may control herself, influence others and dominate her environment. These accomplishments constitute the very quintessence of success and happiness.

Maybe you are sceptical, questioning the very existence of Personal Magnetism, Personal Influence or Psychic Powers? Then may I remind you of the Foundation's "SUCCESS OR MONEY BACK" guarantee. We urge you to try - we GUARANTEE that you will succeed. Under these circumstances, to refuse even to try may well leave the door open to remorse and severe self-reproach. By thoroughly investigating our claims you incur no risk whatsoever, whereas who knows what you may be sacrificing by dismissing them arbitrarily?

Sit down and write to me today, returning the enclosed order-form and questionnaire accompanied by your remittance. If you cannot spare the full amount at the moment, just send a small deposit of five or ten shillings (Rupees) and I will set aside a Complete System and Radio-Hypnotic Crystal for you until the £2. (28 Rupees) is paid.

Let my System inspire you. However drab your life may have been hitherto, it will take on an entirely different hue. You could not possibly secure better dividends from such a modest investment.

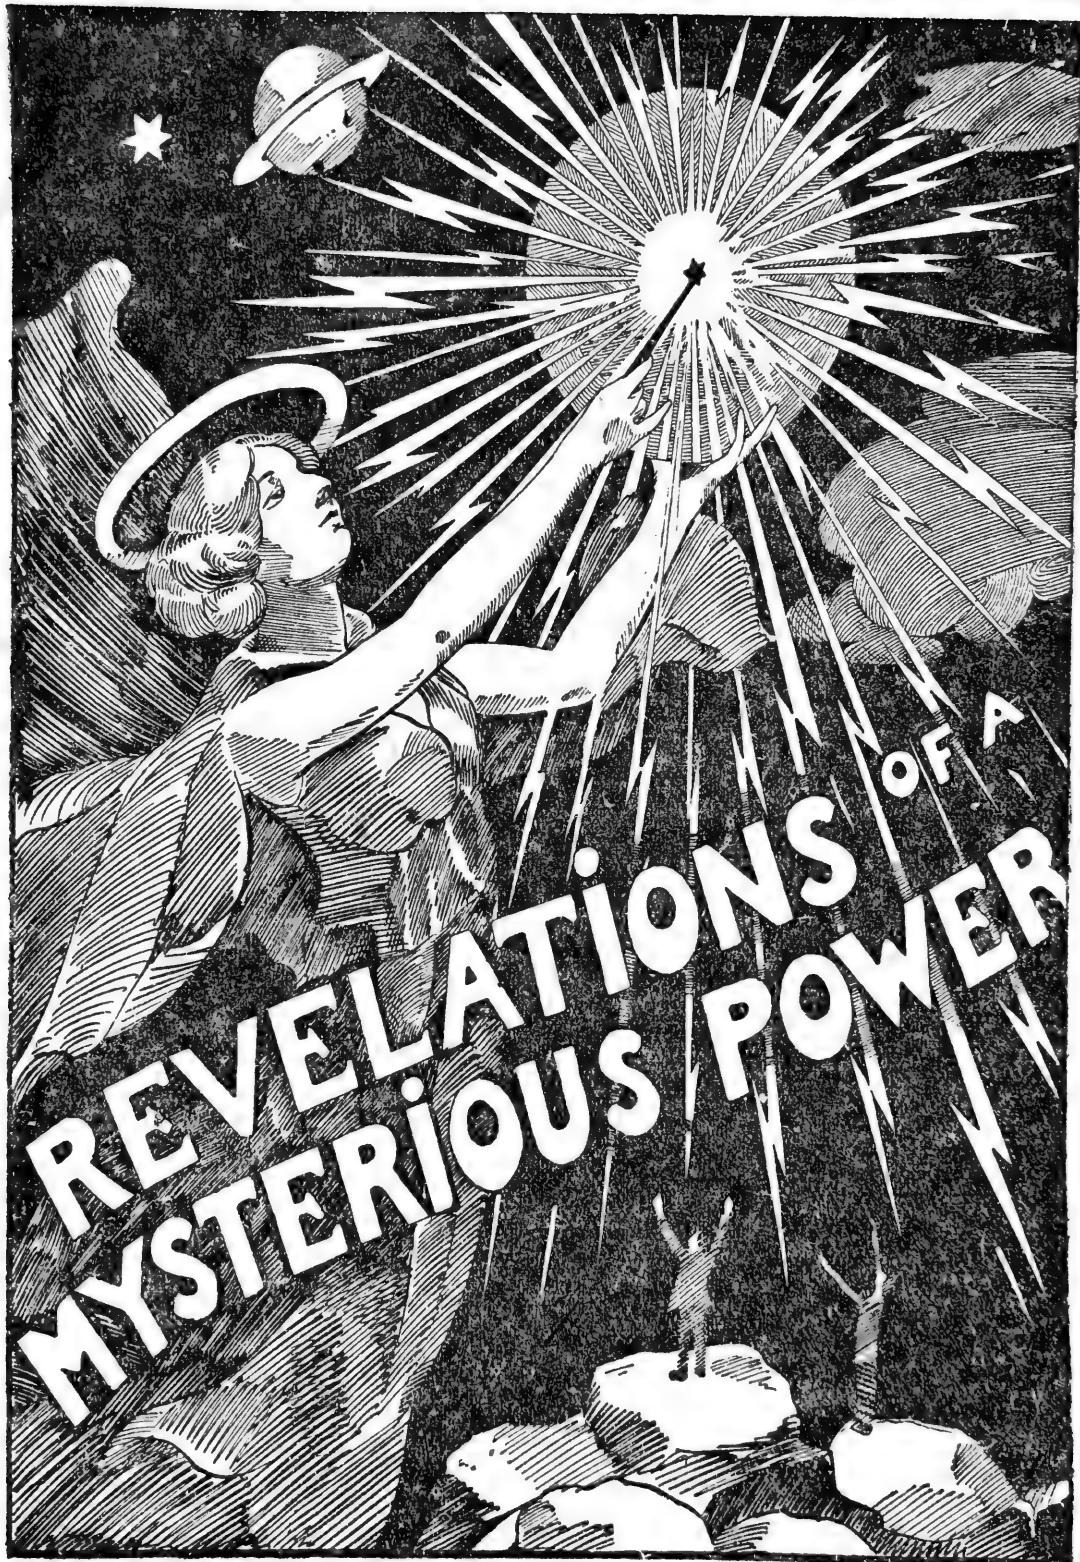

You will never regret having taken this step. If there is any obstacle in your way, write and tell me about it, please. Probably we can find some way of surmounting it.

Sincerely.

OF A
REVELATIONS
MYSTERIOUS POWER

What Is Personal Magnetism?

What is Behind the Power to Influence Others, and the Ability to Compel Success. ?

From the beginning of time, the strong have influenced or ruled the weak. Every age has had a new name or definition for the phenomenon; successive generations have asked themselves what is this force which endows certain people with the ability to control.

To-day we know that the dominant power is « Superior Knowledge » or Mind Force, and we have discovered the secret of its potency.

What precisely it is, we do not know; its effects, however, are being daily demonstrated.

Superior Knowledge the Key to Success

Why do certain men of apparently ordinary ability succeed, while others with positive talent fail?

Because the former know how to utilize their Mental powers.

What was it that enabled the Right Hon. John Burns to rise from a factory hand to the rank of Cabinet Minister?

How did Lord Kitchener control his Forces in such a remarkable manner?

What enabled Sir Thomas Lipton to rise from grocer's assistant to become the head of an enormous organization.

Sir Harry Lauder began life as a miner. Later, through his personality he drew vast audiences, and his salary became greater than that of any Cabinet Minister. How did he achieve this?

The Right Hon. David Lloyd George was at one time a solicitor in an obscure Welsh town, yet he became Prime Minister. How is this accounted for?

In 1880 W. T. Stead was an assistant on the « Pall Mall Gazette »; in a few years he was the world's most famous journalist. What enabled him to succeed?

What power did Richard Croker use to control the politics of New York?

Look up the histories of these men and you will find that they rose to their high and responsible positions through their ability to influence, mould, and dominate their associates and their circumstances.

That was their secret; they had learned how to develop and use their latent mental faculties.

Lack of Knowledge the Cause of Failure

You cannot afford to stand idly by and watch the progress of others. You cannot allow them to pass you in the race. You cannot become a mere spectator while other men are winning laurels and enjoying Success.

If you do not already possess it, you must obtain the knowledge which has enabled these men to forge ahead of all who are not properly equipped. You cannot win carrying an impossible handicap.

There are those, remember, who are counting on you; looking to you to « make good »; depending upon you for everything that makes life worth living.

Success is merely a question of equipment.

The man who does not understand Personal Magnetism, and the laws that bring Success, has no chance in the onward rush towards Prosperity and Affluence — struggle as he may, in the end he will be overwhelmed. Whether you are clever or merely of average ability, you cannot realize your ambition until you have grasped the principles which lie behind the application of your mental faculties to the problems of Life.

How often have you seen men of education and ability plodding along in obscurity, ekeing out a bare existence, when they could and should occupy responsible and well-paid positions?

Such people, almost invariably, are those who have no knowledge of Personal Magnetism, and all that it implies. They have not troubled to find out what is actually basic to Success. They have not bothered to investigate the cause of their own failure, or the success of others who, with less capacity, have gone to the top.

They have never realized that the Secrets of Success can be Taught.

A God-Send to all Who Learn it

Listen to a great preacher, note with what ease he can sway his congregation from laughter to tears; or to the accomplished orator who can play as he will upon the emotions of his audience. These men understand the laws which govern Personal Influence.

On the other hand, listen to those speakers whose utterances are powerless to arouse enthusiasm, or hold the attention. The discourse may be full of wisdom — but what is lacking? Personal Magnetism.

Their words fall still-born. They are not in touch with their hearers; there is no bond of sympathy; they are unable to « grip » those who are waiting to receive their message.

You have known or heard of the Salesman who never seems to succeed, who is continually complaining of hard times. He has been a salesman for years, but is always on the look-out for a new job. He has always « a lot of good schemes on foot » which never mature or yield definite result. He regards himself as unfortunate, or unlucky, or not appreciated. Actually, his trouble is that he knows nothing of Personal Magnetism. Possibly he has never even heard of it.

On the other hand you have seen the acute and successful salesman, whose vivid personality impresses you at once. He is keen, enthusiastic, teeming with good-nature, and always in good spirits. He dresses well, and radiates cheeriness.

Sometimes he is called « lucky », in reality he is simply a man who has got the secret of Personal Magnetism. The Secret that you may learn, without long study, fatigue or expense.

Inexhaustible Capital

Men like those we have last described, are, in nine cases out of ten, students of Applied Psychology and the Theory of Personal Magnetism. They have, in all probability, taken a Course of Instruction, and regard the knowledge thus acquired as their chief asset, their capital, their inexhaustible store of positive power.

The personality of such men makes them popular, facilitates their work, and, in a thousand unsuspected ways, carries them on to Success.

The average man, who has received proper instruction in Personal Magnetism and kindred subjects, is able to impress all with whom he comes in contact, and, by the enlightened use of his mental forces, to control himself, other people, and his environment. Before him lies SUCCESS.

Causes of Failure

Statistics prove that less than 10% of people fail through lack of Ability; while something like 90% miss success through Inactivity, Insincerity or Misdirected Effort.

That is indeed a strong commentary on the value of proper instruction in the development and utilization of those powers which, in varying degree, are possessed by all.

Every man is anxious to decrease Life's Risks, and to escape the lurking, ever-present Chance of Disaster. The only way in which it is possible to guard against misfortune — and at the same time open up the path to success — is to make full use of those special faculties upon which personal influence depends.

But how is this to be done?

Every man should obtain authentic and practical knowledge of those marvellous forces which enable him to face difficulty with confidence, and danger with renewed assurance.

Personal Magnetism is, possibly, the most valuable branch of Mental Science, because it gives « grip » to the man who has learned its secret, and has been taught precisely how the mental powers may be developed and how they may be properly employed.

Danger from Without

Minds are able to act upon each other without the intervention of the five senses. But all outside influences are not beneficial, and the great danger lies in an inability of those ignorant of Psychic Science to throw off the influence of those of their enemies who have acquired the use of this extraordinary force.

« No word in the English language should be used with more caution than Impossible », says the New York Journal. Wireless Telegraphy and the X-rays alone should convince us of this. Physical science shows us that, even within the bounds of our present knowledge, there are vast expanses of territory not yet explored.

Sound, Light, Electricity are all the product of atmospheric vibration, or of a subtler medium called ether. If the vibrations range in frequency from 32 to 32678 per second they cause sound. The more numerous the vibrations the higher and shriller the sound, until, finally, it becomes inaudible to the human ear.

Dumb animals detect sounds to which we, owing to the structure of our ears, are deaf. When the number of vibrations passes 2000 per second they become inaudible; when they reach 1,000,000 we identify them as Electricity. But who can say what comes between? Who shall say that, before long, a Sixth Sense capable of recording or interpreting the intermediate vibrations, may not be discovered?

Some are persuaded that this discovery has already been made, and cite Telepathy as a proof of the assertion.

At least it is reasonable to assume that, if there exist sounds which are inaudible, there are forces not yet fully comprehended. If some claim the ability to hear things of which others have no cognizance, intelligence demands that the matter be investigated, and that we satisfy ourselves of the truth of their statement. Whether or not we can give an explanation is immaterial. Less than two hundred years ago nothing was known of the nature or power of electricity. Ten years hence, telepathy, hypnotism and suggestion may be hourly used by all as vital necessities for the everyday affairs of life.

Already many people all over the world are using these mysterious powers — generally with beneficent

SO IT IS WITH PERSONAL MAGNETISM, OR APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY.

Instruction must precede the power to utilize the Mental Sciences.

For ordinary men and women a profound study of these subjects is not essential to success; a simple, sound, and practical correspondence system taught by a competent and experienced operator is all that is necessary. Deeper knowledge will come with practice.

Investigate this matter; look into it for yourself. Accept the word of no one who has not troubled to satisfy himself as to the reality and validity of the sciences referred to.

Say to yourself: « If there is anything in this for me, I shall assuredly obtain it. » Find out, and then translate your resolve to action.

It may mean a few hours simple and agreeable work, but in the end it will bring an abundant reward.

Convince yourself that « here is something of vital importance to me », and then act without delay. There is no virtue in delayed action, no point in omitting to do something which you realize will be beneficial in countless ways.

It is futile to « sigh for opportunity » when opportunity is already knocking at your door. Seize your chance while it is still yours — next week, next month, next year may be too late.

Here is Opportunity, Grasp it Now

You cannot doubt that you need additional power. If £1000 were used as a symbol of power would you refuse it? Of course not; simply because you know what £1000 could do for you.

If you would find out exactly what Personal Influence can do for you, you must investigate the claims of the system which, in the opinion of thousands of students, occupies the Premier place. When you have done that, all doubts will vanish, and you will realize the value of Applied Psychology just as clearly as you now realize the value of a gift of cash.

Secure to-day this inestimable aid to Success, and you will already have placed your foot on the first rung of the ladder that leads to Prosperity and Happiness.

What Distinguished Men Think of Mental Science

Extracts from Recently Published Opinions Dealing with Hypnotism, Telepathy, Personal Influence and Suggestion

That Telepathy is now recognized as a positive reality is amply evidenced by the series of experiments recently conducted by two of the most advanced Thinkers and stimulating teachers of modern times, Professor Gilbert Muray, Regius Professor of Greek, Oxford University, and Lord Balfour, K.G., O.M., P.C., F.R.S., D.L.

Commenting on these experiments to the members of the Press, Lord Balfour said, "What I urge everybody to remember is, that these experiments prove conclusively that there is a wholly unknown method of traversing space between two unconscious organisms".

Professor Gilbert Murray, in his Presidential Address to the Society for Psychical Research, said, "Telepathy is operating at every moment, and most people can obtain the same results, if they practise".

Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent scientist, in an Address to the London Press Club on the 28th February 1925, stated, "I have investigated Telepathy and I tell you it is a reality".

Sir William Barrett, the eminent Professor, Chief Founder and former President of the Psychical Research Society, in an interview with the representative of the "Yorkshire Post" on the subject of the Murray-Balfour experiments, said, "Professor and Mrs. Sidgwick, Mr. Frederic Myers (author of the standard work, "Human Personality"), Professor Balfour Stewart and Professor Sir Alfred Hopkinson were personally convinced of the fact of Thought Transference".

Winifred Clara Culis, Professor of Physiology at the University of London, in a special contribution to the "Sunday Times" of the 21st December 1924, writes: "Transmission of Thought from one individual to another without the intervention of the normal communicating mechanisms does seem to be a possible occurrence".

Professor Charles Richet, one of the most eminent psychologists in Europe, in his notable work "Thirty Years of Psychical Research" (English Edition, page 134) writes: "The results of investigations have been so carefully observed and with such scrupulous exactitude, that doubt is impossible".

Professor Camille Flammarion, the distinguished French scientist, in a remarkable preface to a new work by Monsieur Henry Decharbogne, writes, as reported in the "Daily Mail" of the 15th December 1924, that, "Transference of Thought has been recorded at all earthly distances".

Healing

The constantly increasing number of Physicians and Scientists, in all parts of the world, who use Suggestion, Auto-Suggestion, Psycho-therapy in the treatment of innumerable diseases, and the amazing records of successful cases so treated, are unassailable proofs that Healing through the Mind is a scientific fact.

The following extracts from the opinions of world-famous thinkers indicate that this branch of Therapeutics is of recognized validity.

Dr. William Brown, Wilde Lecturer in Mental Philosophy, University of Oxford, speaking at the 1925 Conference of Oxfordshire Teachers, said: "It is possible to apply mental treatment successfully in cases of bodily illness. Suggestion is extremely effective in various cases of nerve-trouble".

The Right Reverend Dr. Hensley Henson, Bishop of Durham, in his Address to the Diocesan Conference, on the 14th March 1925, stated, "It is difficult, perhaps impossible, to set limits to the power of Suggestion. Spiritual Healing merely means Mental Healing. Human nature contains within itself curative resources, which can be brought into play by Auto-Suggestion".

Shaw Desmond, the well-known writer on Psychology, as quoted in the "Sunday Mercury" of the 25th January 1925, said, "There are in England to-day hundreds of medical men, who are profound believers in the direct effect of Auto-Suggestion as a new healing medium to give hope to the hopeless. One famous Harley Street specialist, who, during the war, was a leading adviser to the Government, has told me, that he has systematically used Auto-Suggestion in some hundreds of cases, and that cases so treated show a marked advantage over those treated by the use of drugs."

The Rev. F. S. M. Bennett, Dean of Chester, speaking at a meeting of the Guild of Health, attached to the Church of the Sacred Trinity, Salford, on the 21st January 1925, told his hearers, that, "In healing of any sort, it is impossible to separate the sick body from the patient's mind".

M. Emile Coué, the renowned French Psychologist, lecturing, on the 20th December 1924, to the Royal British Nurses' Association, stated that the object of Applied Psychology was : "to teach people how to heal themselves by the universal power of Auto-Suggestion".

Robert Blatchford, the celebrated journalist, in a contribution to the "Sunday News" of the 4th January 1925, referring to the work of Professor Alexander Erskine, the well-known specialist in Suggestive Healing, said : "Suggestion is a recognized, respectable, and potent branch of medical practice. There are doctors who heal and cure without surgery and without medicine, and who achieve apparent miracles by Thought, that is, by Suggestion. Paralysis has been cured and sight has been given to the blind. I have, in my desk, a letter from a young woman, who was suffering from spinal meningitis and had been given up as hopeless by the doctors. She had one sitting with Professor Erskine and she walked home. She is now quite well and strong."

Dr. A. Marie, the distinguished French Scientist and Professor, Chief of St-Anne's Hospital, Paris, interviewed by "Le Matin" in regard to the wonderful cures of M. Jean Baziat, declared, as published under date of the 30th January 1925, that "there is nothing impossible in M. Baziat's claim. The influence of the mind over the body is well-known".

The Rev. George Jack, M. A., President for Scotland of the International Society for Applied Psychology, lecturing, on the 6th February 1925, at the Central Hall Edinburgh, said : "I have seen the most hopeless cases cured. I know a lady who was suffering from cancer in the breast, and was given up by doctors. She took up the science of Applied Psychology, and now, she is one of healthiest women you could see. There are vast possibilities for every one of us that we have not yet sounded".

Speaking at the Cambridge Hall, Southport, on the 24th February 1925, Mr. Robert de Veré Stacpoole, the famous lecturer, said : "Psycho-therapy, or healing through the mind, is the marvel of the age, I am very pleased to say that the medical fraternity is asking for the help of Suggestion. It will cure all functional diseases, will instil self-confidence, eradicate vices, and remould the character."

The "Scotsman" — one of the most representative organs of public Thought in Great Britain — in an editorial, under date of the 15th March 1925, says, "The wonders wrought by Suggestion, including Auto-Suggestion, have still to be brought into place as departments of human knowledge. There are marvels worked every day in our homes that, not so long ago, would have been set down as being utterly beyond credit."

Personal Influence and Psychology

The Medical Correspondent of the "Times", in an article published on the 27th December 1924, writes : "The truth would seem to be that the senses are no more than so many interpreters for the brain. They transmute the various influences of life into the mother-tongue, nerve force, vital force, call it what you will. This "power of personality", this influence, which a strong man exerts over weak men, varies greatly, and business men would do well to devote their attention to that mundane form of telepathy, since upon it largely depends their success in their enterprises. If their unknown senses are weak, they will assuredly miss opportunities and fail to exert influence at critical moments. Because we so greatly fear to believe in anything, which savours of the miraculous, we turn a blind eye to obvious fact, and the mighty force of personality is overlooked."

Lecturing at the inauguration of a branch of the British Psychological Society, in the Medical Institute, Birmingham, on the 13th January 1925, Dr. Hamblin Smith stated : "It is quite clear that the newer psychological theories of the unconscious mind had an enormous effect upon our conceptions".

Rev. Russel Baker, B. A., speaking at Lewisham, on the 13th January 1925, said : "I could have hypnotised 25 people out of a hundred, and probably another 25 per cent. Everybody could do the same thing with the same knowledge, for we all possess the same power — it is the great law of suggestion."

These opinions, from distinguished thinkers in all vocations, should leave no doubt in the mind of the reader as to the positive potency of Mental Science or Applied Psychology, and should convince all who are seeking Success in whatsoever direction, that it is in the power of every man to go forward to the full realization of his ambition.

Slowly but surely, the whole world is discovering the profound truth of the statement that « Mind Rules », and that mastery belongs to the individual or race that has learned to utilize the inner forces.

The Development of Personal Influence

The Importance of Adopting the Right Method

Investigate then Choose.

There is nothing more wasteful and discouraging than misdirected effort. To have worked conscientiously and well and to find, at last, that the result is nil is a bitter experience. It behoves everyone, therefore, to ascertain that every hour of toil will produce full and just reward.

A sound system of instruction means that every moment devoted to study brings the student appreciably nearer his goal.

The Knowles' Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing has been prepared with infinite care in a manner calculated to reduce mental effort and time spent to an absolute minimum, and ensure complete success. Based on thirty years unremitting research and study and consolidated by the practical experience of Professor Knowles himself, the Knowles' System has been deservedly acclaimed as unique. It teaches everything that is necessary to the development and utilization of those latent faculties, on which Success depends, in a simple and readily understood manner.

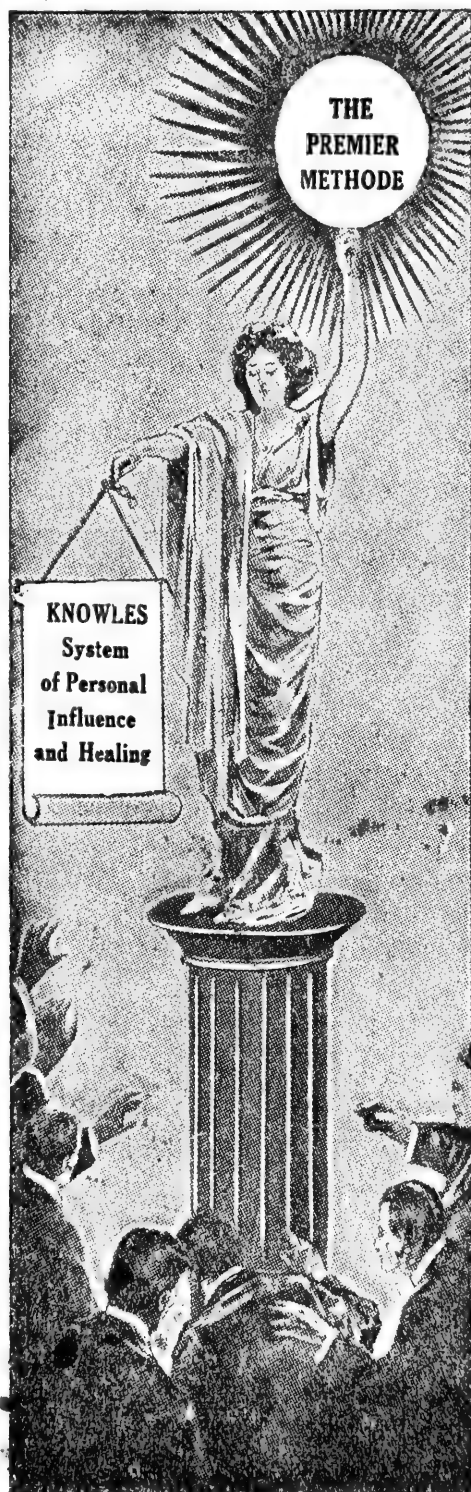

Those responsible for this simplified method of instruction are so confident of its efficiency, that they are prepared to guarantee that a more practical, more comprehensive, or more readily understood method of teaching by correspondence does not exist. That is a straightforward guarantee without qualification, but it is made on the strength of testimonials from successful students in all parts of the world.

Should the course of instruction not be as represented, or should the student ultimately fail to develop his mental forces, every penny paid by way of fees will be refunded.

Could any offer be fairer than this? IS THERE ANY REASON WHY YOU SHOULD HESITATE WHEN THE PLAIN PROPOSITION IS — SATISFACTION OR MONEY BACK. You lose Nothing. You may gain Everything.

The price of the Knowles' Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing, including the Radio Hypnotic Crystal, is £ 8 or, $ 40, U.S.A.

Dear Miss Reynolds,

Acknowledging your recent communication, I am pleased to note that the System has reached you safely. At the present there is nothing to be added to my letter which accompanied the System, excepting to stress the importance of not permitting your enthusiasm to wane.

The fact that you ordered the System is proof that you decided to begin the fight within yourself for better things, for greater success, for real happiness and improvement of a worth-while character.

You have made a big step in the right direction, and if your present reaction against just "jogging along" results in quickening your thought and giving it right direction, you will soon be able to turn each hour and each day to profitable account - and your improvement, your benefit, and your satisfaction will not be ephemeral but permanent.

You have set out to develop, control and employ the MENTAL FORCES, which are the chief directing factors in everything that mankind accomplishes. Let nothing cause you to deviate from the chosen path. Do not be content with a circuitous, round-about route. Endeavour to employ the direct "result getting" instrumentality that time and experience have proven efficient. MEMORY, CONCENTRATION, WILL-POWER and the skilful application of SUGGESTION in your everyday undertakings will unquestionably bring within your reach everything that you can legitimately and honourably desire.

The system is designed to enable you to develop and use these powers. Thousands of other students have applied the teachings with astounding results. You have read some of their reports in the pamphlets previously sent to you. These reports should be an inspiration to you, and should spur your efforts to the stage of grim determination.

Go at the study and practise the lessons with enthusiasm and confidence, and I predict that ere long it will be your great pleasure to report (as scores of other students are reporting daily) the accomplishment of things which you have hitherto thought impossible.

In closing, let me assure you that I am at all times at your disposal for such additional advice as may be required by you in connection with your studies of the System. If you have not already availed yourself of the opportunity to procure and study the supplementary lessons described on the circular herewith, please apply for such lessons as you feel may be of benefit to you. As mentioned on the circular, students of the System can obtain these supplementary lessons free of charge.

With hope and expectation of receiving an encouraging report from you at an early date.

Sincerely yours,

"The wonderful power of Personal Influence, Magnetism, Fascination, Mind Control, call it what you will, can surely be acquired by everyone no matter how unattractive or unsuccessful," says Mr. Elmer Ellsworth Knowles, author of the new book entitled: The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces. The book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practices of the Eastern Yogis, and describes a unique System for the Development of Personal Magnetism, Hypnotic and Telepathic Powers, and the curing of disease and habits through suggestion.

The System has received scores of recommendations, among which the following from representative publications, the clergy and the medical profession, are striking examples.

The Christian Age. — "Prof. Knowles' System has cured disease, corrected bad habits, strengthened Memory, and proved highly beneficial in the cultivation of personality and Personal Influence."

The London Weekly Times. — "Prof. Elmer E. Knowles' Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing provides the embryo enthusiast with just such knowledge as could be adapted to his own personal circumstances and inclination."

The London Mail. — "Prof. Knowles' System embraces a great deal of erudition in a form which can be readily grasped by all who have the ability to read and understand simple prose. No better help towards success in life could be desired."

Modern Society. — "No modern investigator along psychological lines has received so large an amount of praise as that accorded to Prof. Elmer E. Knowles for his marvellous System of Personal Influence and Healing. Here at last is a man who is at once a great scholar, a born teacher and practical helper—for the instruction papers reveal a nature which is sympathetic and of good fellowship for an ambitious, yet largely misguided, population."

The Rev. James Stanley Wentz says: "No one can give the System a careful perusal without becoming satisfied that in giving this knowledge to the world Prof. Knowles is actuated by the earnest desire to uplift and benefit mankind. I heartily recommend this course to all who desire to develop and cultivate their inner forces."

A Leading London Physician, Dr. R.N. Pickering, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., L.S.A., in a letter to Prof. Knowles, says: "I consider your system the most complete and accurate literature upon the subject. You have treated the science with much ability."

A Prominent American Physician, A. W. Fisher, M. D., Ph. D., M. E., Principal of the

Douglas Institute, writes: "Your System is very useful to me in my practice."

"Rich and poor alike benefit by the teachings of this new System," says Prof. Knowles, "and the person who wishes to achieve greater success has but to apply the simple rules laid down."

10,000 copies of The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces have been printed for free distribution, but only one copy will be supplied to each household. It is desired to place the book in the hands of people who are interested in the development of their dormant faculties and more especially those who wish to apply the powers of suggestion and hypnotism to useful and praiseworthy objects.

What Others Think of the Knowles System

« I have already accomplished various wonderful results in Hypnotism and also in Healing after only a fortnight's study of your System. »
Franz Mai.

« I was only three days in possession of your System when I was able to get rid of my ailments. »
Marie Mûcher.

« A student of your System is enabled to develop his latent natural abilities and your System has produced very beneficial results for me. »
H. R. Stanley.

« I have never seen such a practical and easily understood System as yours and I wish to recommend it in the warmest possible manner. »
Bartholt Martens.

« I have been very successful in Telepathy, specially in experiments with a friend who lives at a considerable distance from me. »
Anna Klement.

« I have proved to my own satisfaction that the System is indeed excellent and this after only a few weeks study. »
Otto Haasse.

« I can warmly recommend the System of Personal Influence and Healing to all who are anxious to obtain success and happiness. »
Dr. Paul Molin.

« Your System has been of immeasurable assistance to me in my darkest hours and I regret that I did not acquire this knowledge years ago. »
Ida Oberfüll.

« Not a day passes that I do not feel an increase of my inner powers. Your System has enabled me to accomplish some interesting experiences in thought transmission. »
B. Tolch.

« Of all the Books on Psychology, Occultism, or the Mysterious Sciences which it has been my privilege to review, I must confess that none of them bear the slightest resemblance to Professor Knowles's work, and if I were asked, briefly to characterize « The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces » my answer would be: It is the most remarkable book that I have ever read and holds one spellbound from cover to cover. »

How to Possess A Magnetic Personality and Compel Others to Obey Your Will.

NEW STUDENTS OF HYPNOTIC-SUGGESTION WORK WONDERS

How the Average Man or Woman can Develop and Use the Strange Powers of Hypnotism, Suggestion and Telepathy to Influence People in Business and Society; to Correct Character Defects, Curb Bad Habits and Heal Themselves and Others.

"TO UPLIFT AND BENEFIT MANKIND"
says the Rev. James Stanley Wentz.

PSYCHOLOGY FOUNDATION DISTRIBUTES FREE BOOK THAT DESCRIBES UNIQUE SYSTEM AND ALSO SENDS FREE CHARACTER DELINEATION TO ALL WHO WRITE AT ONCE.

« The wonderful power of Personal Influence, Magnetism, Fascination, Mind Control, call it what you will, can surely be acquired by everyone no matter how unattractive or unsuccessful », says Mr. Elmer Ellsworth Knowles, author of the new book entitled: The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces. The book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practices of the Eastern Yogis, and describes a unique System for the Development of Personal Magnetism, Hypnotic and Telepathic Powers, and the curing of disease and habits through suggestion.

The System has received scores of recommendations, among which the following from representative publications, the clergy and the medical profession, are striking examples.

The Christian Age. — « Prof. Knowles' System has cured disease, corrected bad habits, strengthened Memory, and proved highly beneficial in the cultivation of personality and Personal Influence. »

The London Weekly Times. — « Prof. Elmer E. Knowles' Complete System of Personal Influence and Healing provides the embryo enthusiast with just such knowledge as could be adapted to his own personal circumstances and inclination. »

The London Mail. — « Prof. Knowles' System embraces a great deal of erudition in a form which can be readily grasped by all who have the ability to read and understand simple prose. No better help towards success in life could be desired. »

Modern Society. — « No modern investigator along psychological lines has received so large an amount of praise as that accorded to Prof. Elmer E. Knowles for his marvellous System of Personal Influence and Healing. Here at last is a man who is at once a great scholar, a born teacher and practical helper—for the instruction papers reveal a nature which is sympathetic and of good fellowship for an ambitious, yet largely misguided, population. »

The Rev. James Stanley Wentz says: « No one can give the System a careful perusal without becoming satisfied that in giving this knowledge to the world Prof. Knowles is actuated by the earnest desire to uplift and benefit mankind. I heartily recommend this course to all who desire to develop and cultivate their inner forces. »

A Leading London Physician, Dr. R. N. Pickering, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., L.S.A., in a letter to Prof. Knowles, says: « I consider your system the most complete and accurate literature upon the subject. You have treated the science with much ability. »

Douglas Institute, writes: « Your System is very useful to me in my practice ». »

« Rich and poor alike benefit by the teachings of this new System », says Prof. Knowles, « and the person who wishes to achieve greater success has but to apply the simple rules laid down ». »
